Reformation/All Saints' Day

October 30 – November 5, 2017

Monday: Matthew 11:25-29 Do you sometimes feel burdened and weary with being Christ-like in this world? Maybe Jesus is reminding us that discipleship is not a burden and will not make us weary if we are in partnership with Him. Pray to the One who lightens our load and brings rest to our soul.

Tuesday: Reformation Day: John 8:31-36 Jesus has liberated us from our sin. Today, walk in the freedom that comes from being a disciple of Christ. Pray in God's Word and thanksgiving for the freedom we have received through Jesus' sacrifice.

Wednesday: All Saints' Day: Psalm 23 Such a familiar Psalm. Today, instead of saying grace at each of your meals, read and pray on Psalm 23 during your meals. Let God's Word soak in and feed your soul while the food feeds your body.

Thursday: Matthew 22:34-40 Though we are children of grace, we still fall under the law. Not because that is what saves us, but because we want to share God's love and mercy with others. They will know God through our love and care for what is important to God. Pray in God's loving law.

Friday: Psalm 46 Sometimes it is hard to see or hear God in the midst of all the noise of this world. This Psalm is a good reminder that if you cut through all that noise, you will find God in our midst, refreshing us, healing us, and calming our spirit. So be still and pray through verses 10-11.

Saturday: Isaiah 43:1-3 When reading these verses, I love to place my name right into these verses. Read these verses out loud, placing yourself into that scripture. How did that make you feel? Before bed tonight, read these to your family, placing their name into the scripture. If you have an empty nest or live alone, call someone on the phone (or Facetime them) and read their name into this scripture. Do you feel God's promised protection for your life? Pray in thanksgiving for God's presence and safety.

Sunday: Matthew 5:1-12 The Beatitudes Can you find yourself in any of these verses? Know that you have already been blessed. God has seen us, feels our discomfort/pain, and loves us enough to bless us before we even know we need the blessing. Pray in thanksgiving for a God that leans down into our discomfort to bring us blessing and comfort.
