

Personal DailyWalk

January 15-21, 2018

Monday: Psalm 86 Incline your ear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy. Pray this Psalm throughout your day, praising and petitioning to the God who hears our every whisper.

Tuesday: Acts 5:1-11 Yikes! Holding back from God leads to death! Seems kind of harsh, but in your heart, do you see the truth of that statement? What are you not giving God 100%? Pray for God to show you how to be all in with Him.

Wednesday: Luke 18:15-17 For me, this story goes along with yesterday. When you think of young children, do you see how they are all in or all out? They, generally, don't do things halfway. They commit to the adventure, or they walk away from the adventure. Pray for God to help you become all in on the path He has set for you.

Thursday: Romans 5:1-5 Hope! Can you cling to the hope that you receive from God's grace, even through the hard times? Does this make you think of the phrase, 'keep your eye on the prize?' Pray through the good, the bad, and the everyday, thanking God for the hope we have in Him.

Friday: Psalm 18:1-6 Here again, we hear how God hears our cries. Sometimes He seems so far away, but I hope you will pray this psalm today and feel God's presence.

Saturday: 2 Peter 3:1-7 Do you sometimes fall into that category of crying that things stay the same...same struggles, same hard world, same cruelty...that you lose sight of the promise? Pray for God to remind you of His promise and faithfulness.

Sunday: Psalm 62 Reflect on where your heart is today. Is it on worldly things or Godly things? Pour out your heart to God, and let Him hear your pleas to be closer to Him so that the worldly things can fall away.
