Fruit of the Spirit: Self-Control

May 28 – June 3, 2018

Monday: Galatians 5:22-26 Freedom to live in God's Spirit. It sounds counterintuitive that self-control is freedom, but when we live with God's Spirit at our core, we can live in the freedom of Christ's resurrection. Pray for God's Spirit to guide you this day and all your days.

Tuesday: James 3:1-12 Does your tongue resemble any of these – forest fire, deadly poison, brackish water? Such a small muscle, but boy it has the power of immense good and immense evil. Pray for God's Spirit to tame your tongue and strengthen it for immense good.

Wednesday: 1 Corinthians 6:12-20 Are you being dominated by your body? Are you swaying every which way that your body pushes you, whether it is with food, drink, or desires? Pray for God's Spirit to show you what is beneficial and glorifies God.

Thursday: James 4:1-10 How are your relationships? Do you find yourself jealous of others? Are you imbedded into the worldly way of trying to keep up with the Jones, or coveting what others have? Pray for God's Spirit to embolden you to draw near to God and know that what He provides is more than sufficient.

Friday: Proverbs 28: 7, 13 Pray in confession of where you have failed to be Christ-like in this world, asking for God's Spirit to shore up those areas that need it.

Saturday: 1 Timothy 6:6-10 In a worldly way, contentment can almost be a negative word. With God, contentment is peace. It's a good reminder that we came into this world with nothing, and we will leave this world with nothing. Pray for God's Spirit to help you find contentment where He has placed you, trusting in His grace and mercy.

Sunday: Summer Sunday School begins today! Romans 13:11-14 Pray in these verses today! Clothe yourself in Christ and be His light in this world, knowing His Spirit dwells in you and brings you self-control that the world cannot.
