

Personal DailyWalk

June 19-25, 2017

Monday: Romans 3:21-31 What difference does it make to be justified by faith or by works? How would your life be different if you were justified by your works? How could your life be different if you fully embraced being justified by grace? Pray on these thoughts, asking God to provide the comfort you need.

Tuesday: Romans 5:12-21 The difference of one. One brings sin and death. One brings grace and eternal life. Pray to the God of perpetual second chances, thanking him for the One who brings grace and eternal life.

Wednesday: Romans 7:14-25 Have you ever felt the way Paul feels here? You know the good things you should be doing – eating healthy, exercising, reading God's word, helping a neighbor, etc. I imagine you can come up with your own list of things you feel God is calling you to do, yet you can come up with as equally a long list of excuses. I like to think of excuses as lies we tell ourselves. So what lies are you telling yourself that is impeding your ability to do the good that God has planned for you? Reread verse 25, praising God for the gift of Jesus.

Thursday: Romans 9:19-29 God is sovereign and can do whatever He wants. How amazing is it, then, that this Most Sovereign and Holy God not only has compassion for us, but deeply cares about what we are going through? Pray to God that He shows you compassion where you need it, but also for you to accept His molding of you as He is the Great Potter.

Friday: Romans 12:9-21 Spend time in prayer on these verses, asking God to show you where you are hitting the mark and where you need an extra dose of help and strength that can only come from Him.

Saturday: Romans 13:8-10 We have one job to do – love. Well, actually, I guess it is two jobs – love God and love others. Sounds simple enough ... then why is it so hard? Pray for love.

Sunday: Romans 16:17-27 Pray in the mystery of God, asking for His wisdom so that you may follow Him in obedience.