

Personal DailyWalk

July 31 – August 6, 2017

In the Book, One Thousand Gifts, by Ann Voskamp, she talks about remembering as an act of thanksgiving; how we can walk unafraid if we spend time remembering the God of old and how He has shown throughout history to be with us always. This week, we are going to explore God's enduring love for His creation.

Monday: Romans 15:4 Pray for encouragement throughout this week as we remember God's steadfast love.

Tuesday: Psalm 136:1-3 Pray these 3 verses throughout your day.

Wednesday: Psalm 136:4-9 Today, spend some time noticing all the wonderful things God has created. Marvel in His creativity and love for those creations. Pray in thanksgiving for all of creation, and especially for the love He has placed into you.

Thursday: Psalm 136:10-16 Remember God's deliverance and care to the people of Israel. Pray to the God of manna, that He will provide the same protection and daily care that He provided the Israelites in the wilderness.

Friday: Psalm 136:17-22 Remember how God is able to make kingdoms rise and fall, and through it all, takes care of His people. Pray in God's promise for your inheritance, asking for protection where you need protection, and give thanksgiving for what you have already received.

Saturday: Psalm 136:23-26 Pray into these verses, remembering that God's steadfast love endures forever, and keep praying until you feel the truth in that promise.

Sunday: Romans 8:31-39 How can we trust the promises of Psalm 136? Do these verses in Romans help you trust in those promises? Pray in thanksgiving for the trust you have, and pray with an honest heart for where you struggle to trust.
